CHICAGO, TUESDAY, JULY 5, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

BANNOCKBURN'S SHERIDAN.

The glorious Fourth, Saratoga weather and an excellent racing card attracted a crowd of

W. S. Barnes was missing, he having gone home to spend the holiday. W. O. Scully was the new arrival. Just from Detroit, the genial "Bill" reported his prospects bright through a new system of wearing a blue stocking on the right and a brown one on the left leg. "This is Al Taylor's invention for breaking the hoodoo.

Thop to do well with 'odd socks.' "

The public seemed to be well posted on racing matters, despite the lack, for two days, of the Chicago daily newspapers. As seven events were up for decision the first race was called at

The feature of the day, The Sheridan Stakes, 14 miles, for 3-year-olds, worth $2,000 to the winner, had only five starters and of these Pink Coat, the American Derby winner, was held at 7 to 5, he carrying 2 pounds more than at his former start in Chicago. Goodrich, at 13 to 5, was second choice and Pingree received support at 4 to 1, while Sardonic and Bannockburn ould be had at 15 to 1 each. The losterers in the public parks had reached the race track by the time betting began on this race, and the holiday character of the assemblage congested all avenues, curiosity seekers badly squeezing bookmaker and bettor in the ring.

The result was a great surprise and destroyed all charts, William McGuigan's colt, Bannockburn, Clawson up, setting his own pace and winning all the way. Pingree was second for three-quarters. Then W. Martin moved up the favorite. At the upper turn Pingree showed distress and Sardonic was beaten. Midway the straight Goodrich made play, and both he and Pink Coat closed to within a length of Bannock burn; but Clawson just looked around and, let-ting go a wrap, his horse gained a length in three strides. McGuigan has all along claimed Bannockburn to be a better animal than Ben Eder or Lady Inez, and maybe he is.

John Brenock's Lucille Bramble, ridden by Clawson, set the pace and was clear of the field a quarter from home, but T. Burns brought up Pat Cleburne on the rails and had the race won at the betting shed. The third horse, Merops, was just ahead of the bunch. The smart ones was just ahead of the bunch. The smart ones whipsawed the first race. Pat Cleburne had worked five-eighths in 1:02 and Lucille Bramble had shown speed at Harlem.

Dave Waldo ran up the back stretch in the lead, his mouth wide open. Miss Gussie, always second, appeared to labor as the homestretch was made and, touched with the spur, switched her tail. "She's done," at once was heard from the bleaching boards. Instead of this, Dave Waldo was the "quitter," and he stopped to a walk before covering seven-eighths of a mile.

Miss Gussie won easily.

Morte Fonse won in a drive, every foot of the way being contested from the head of the home stretch. Official took the track and led to the last few jumps. It looked as if Found would get to the front at the last quarter, but her effort in coming from fourth place on the back stretch spoiled the favorite's chance. Still she hung on to the last fifty yards. The front rank at the last eighth was joined by Don Orsino, and Mistral II came fast at the finish. Cherry Leaf, as at his last start, galloped in front all the way. Burns off in front with

Cherry Lear, as at his last start, gainoped in front all the way. Burns, off in front with Charley Christy, succeded in "placing" him, but when asked to go on the horse did not respond. Enchanter delayed the start and Dwyer, finally becoming tired, dropped the flag with Foster's horse behind. It seems strange that such animals are allowed to destroy the chances of others and at the same time exhaust the patience of everybody. Cash Day and Afamada were in front to the homestretch, then The Manxman and Enchanter passed on. It was a fine race between the pair in the last furlong. The post betting was actually "10 per cent Dutch." Souchon led all the way and Survivor was as easily second, was as easily second.

"Remember the Ides of March," mused the scholarly sport as he noticed the strength of apologetic effort to "square up" the "in and out" running of certain horse owners. "The sword of Damocles," he continued mentally. "It is a certainty that some owners of stables are sure to be called down before this meeting ends."

There sits looking at all these races old Charley Pettingill who is "on to" everything. His whole life has been devoted to turf matters and nothing can come up not known to his ex perience. Why, when Pet was starter at Glou cester the soil there was so rotten that it took the best part of a day to pack the track and the first race had to be postponed and the first race had to be postponed because the roller took a dive toward China. There too the presiding judge was said to have a head like a goober nut. Charley is apt to make things warm if horses show a disposition, like old Taxgatherer, to turn their heads and run according to the figures they see posted in the betting ring.

There is always a chance for one to be mistaken and I am positive the Washington Park Club has employed officials that should know

Club has employed officials that should know best, the more especially as this organization has always taken the pains to employ as presid-ing judge a non-resident of Chicago. Of course this city furnishes the money for the race meetthis city furnishes the money for the race meeting and where nearly two millions of people live and have built up a city, in many respects the greatest the world ever saw, that a competent turf official cannot be found in the lot, is prima facie evidence of the ability of the man selected. "Oh, yes! Pettingill will rip somebody up the back mighty soon, if the boys don't shift."

When just before the third race the victory at Santiago was announced there was such a demonstration by the public as was never before seen at Washington Park. The jockeys, mounted on their horses, stood before the judges stand during the reading of the dispatches which were said to be signed "Samp

Fred Littlefield, who rode Mirthful in the Derby, was up on Doremus and Martha II. He has stayed in Chicago in attendance on R. Walhis uncle, who is gradually gaining in health.

Jimmy Barry, champion bantam pugilist, is a regular attendant.

Jacob Schaefer and C. J. E. Parker represented the billiardists.

The holiday crowd naturally plays outsiders, and the small bettors literally ate up several of the books on Bannockburn, there being offered as good as 5 to 1 for a place. Riley Grannan bet on Pingree. Pink Coat jumped up in price, as heavy investors do not care to play horses of his class carrying 129 pounds.

"Brown Dick," one of the best of judges of horseflesh, said concerning Hamburg: "Of all the horses I ever saw he is the fastest. He just outbreaks any horse four lengths and is gone; they never see him again. That first race this gone didn't co." year didn't go.

Capt. J. H. Reese, Presiding Judge at seve western race tracks, came over from St. Louis to spend the day. For two weeks he has been acting for Jack Price at St. Louis.

Albert Gage of the Wellington Hotel, said: "I never saw a nicer day's racing or better order observed."

Winner—B. c. 3. by Hanover—Constantinople.
Start good. Won easily. Sanders was easily the best, He is a high class sprinter. Tabouret liked the going and closed strong. Watch her at Brighton. Momentum, badly handled, closed a big gap. Kinnikinnick had no chance with his jockey. He is not as good as he was thought to be. Sensational is good. Lady Marian ran as if stale. Murillo had no chance with the ride he got. The others had no chance.

Start good, Won driving. Belmar was lucky and well handled. He is in good form. Bannock was the best horse today but got a weak finish. Near the wire he was winning apparently. Has class but requires strong handling. Hanlon showed splendid speed. He is at his best. Pace making killed him. Hanwell was overweighted with this kind. Central Trust is of no account except among cheaper ones.

Start good. Won eased up. The race was run in a terrific rain storm. Hamburg galloped alone throughout. He far outclassed his field. He was eased at end, but appeared to be tiring. Plaudit ran a game race. The muddy track helped him and was possibly against Hamburg. Plaudit will do and is at his best. Boyd is a mud lark and a stayer as well. Huguenot tired in the going. He must have a fast track. Is moreover a sulky and unreliable horse. The other two could never get up, but ran well.

Winner—Gr. g, by Conrad—Mattie B. Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; second, third and fourth driving hard. Pat Cleburne was the best, lucky and well ridden. He is likely to improve. He is a loafer though and needs strong handling. Lucille Bramble, off flying, ran a fair race. She was lucky to be second though. Had Merops got away as well and had as good luck he would have been second and might have been a keen contender. Hosavannah acted better and ran a creditable race. Doremus, well tried and played, had little or no speed. Princess Murphy had early speed. She had bad luck though and was obliged to pull up on the far turn.

Winner—Ch. h., 6, by Fonso—Flyer.

Off at first break to a good start. Won cleverly; the next four were ridden out. Morte Fonse is in good form. He got good handling and galloped over his field like a good horse at the finish. Official ran a good race. He set a good, warm pace, and hung on gamely when the pinch came. This colt has some class and judging from this race is rounding to. Tab him from now on. Mistral II. had a lot of bad luck in the race. So did Sutton. Both were messed about and interfered with often and both finished strong. Sutton was closing very fast at the finish. Watch him. He is in good form. Found is faint-hearted. She had clear sailing in the race and had no excuses. Don Orsino ran a good race. He was vitely ridden. Rose was off last and pumped the colt out down the back stretch. He looked dangerous on the turn, but the early effort told and he tired. Barataria pulled up lame. He may have broken down.

Scratched—Lucid, 92; Bellicoso, 107; Haphazard, 105; Amy Wade, 100.

Overweights—Found, 2 pounds; Sutton. 2; Dorothy III, 2.

Post 20 minutes. Start good for all but Enchanter. It was a terrific drive between the first two. The Manxman just got up in the last stride. He stopped and came again in the stretch and was extremely lucky to win. Caywood used him much at the post and was on the outside all of the way. The strong finish the boy rode, though, made up for all this. Enchanter was undoubtedly the best. He, as usual, gave the starter a lot of trouble. Thorpe got off last and the horse tried to bear in. At the half mile role he raced in between The Manxman and Traverser, and was knocked off his stride. Below the sixteenth pole Enchanter was winning but he faltered fight at the end. He is good. Cash Day had a lot of speed but his legs heated and he stopped. Traverser needs a rest. Afamada, outclassed, ran a fair race.

Winner—B. f, by Himyar—Tarentella.

Post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won eased up; second well in hand; third and fourth doing seir best. Southon is an exceptionally good filly and was in a soft spot. She is a quick breaker ad a very speedy filly. It is doubtful though whether she will go a route. She seems to have assand it will carry her along. Survivor is a handy colt and can win at once. Martin could be get to the winner and rode an easy race. Considering it was Galathee's first start his permance was good. Tab him. Mail Bag suffered from bad handling. Cheval d'Or ran a bad ce. He favors mud. Tulla Fonso met with interference on the stretch turn.
